Special Cable to The Weshington Herald. Brussels, Sept. 11.-Of the English people who were residing in Brussels when the German army entered after the fall of Liogo about 500 men, women and children remain. There are no men of military age among them. Without a special permit they are not allowed to go beyond the residence districts, but apart from this restriction, irksome as it must naturally be to live within a restricted area for so many months, they have nothing to complain of in their treatment by the German authorities. They are not interned. They are all registered, and are permitted to reside in their own houses, and they suffer to undue interference from German officials. Nor are they molested in any way Subject to strict regulations dictated by military necessary they enjoy all the rights and privileges of citizens in time of peace, and the ordinary life of the city goes on in a quiet, orderly and regular way.

The most striking difference is that the streets have a deserted appearance, and is not occupied by a German soldier. Some cinematograph theaters are but the theaters are all closed. The tele-phones cannot be used, telegrams cannot be sent or received; and the postoffice is under the complete control of the Ger-A large number of German civilians have come to the city and many of them have found employment, but all the municipal services are still worked by Belgians, and Belgians police the streets under German militar; control. Thanks to the splended work of the American relief fund, there is plenty of food, and no one is starving. There is, indeed, no tack of anything, though

prices are high.
It is reported that some English refugees from Brussels had stated an land-ing in England that they have received no assistance and were starving. If that was their plight it was due to the fact that they were not registered, as had been ordered.

CONFERENCE TO WEIGH REQUEST BY CARRANZA

First Chief's Suggestion May Come Up for Consideration on Tuesday.

Carranza's reply to the peace parley proposals of Secretary Lansing and the Latin-American diplomats was received at the State Department yesterday. Secretary Lansing declined to discuss it. This reply bears out the summary given in The Herald yesterday. It is an unmistakable demand for recognition, accompanied by a declaration that Car-ranza controls the major part of the republic and is the head of a government that is worthy of being recognized by other powers. Secretary Lansing said yesterday that the Latin-American Mexican peace con-ference would soon be reconvened. As Ambassador Naon, of Argentine, sails for home on Wednesday, it is understood the conference will be held Tuesday. It will then be determined whether Carranza's request for a conference to con-sider international matters will be complied with.

Villa headquarters yesterday issued a statement that it will address a note shortly to the pan-American conference "answering the maze of falsehood, mis-representation and inconsistency conained in Carranza's reply. In State Department advices late yesterday confirmation came of the execution of Gen. Urbinam at Villa's orders on the charge of accepting a bribe of $500,000 to go over to the Carranzistas. The Villa agency said the execution took place at San Bernardino in the State of Chihuahua, where Urbina lived. A few days ago Urbina suffered a severe defeat by the Carranz'sta forces. He was a large land owner and reputed wealthy. He land owner and reputed wealthy. He was recognized as one of Villa's most trusted generals.

Gen. Funston reported to the War Department that he believed all danger of further raids along the Texas bor-der is past. He now has 20,000 troops along the Rio Grande.

Brownsville, Tex., Sept. 11-Two Mexicans were killed in a battle early today between Texas rangers and Mexican bandits at Santa Anita ranch. fifteen miles north of Edinburgh, Hi-university County, The bandits had been hiding on the ranch for a week. The battle began shortly after dark last night, the rangers guiding their firing by the flashes of the Mexican guns. The bandits were routed and the rest of the band is being pursued.
